Filed: September 26, 2024

Alison Haskins, Siri & Glimstad, LLP, Aventura, FL, for Petitioner.

Irene Angelica Firippis, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On February 14, 2024, Janet Lotherington filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a Table shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”), as the result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccination received in her right deltoid on September 21, 2022. Petition at 1-2. Petitioner further alleges that she suffered the residual effects of her condition for more than six months. Petition at 5. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On September 25, 2024, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent states that, “petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with SIRVA as defined by the Vaccine Injury Table. Specifically petitioner had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction of her left shoulder prior to vaccination; pain occurred within forty-eight hours after receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; pain and reduced range of motion was limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality has been identified to explain petitioner's shoulder pain." Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that Petitioner suffered the residual effects of her condition for more than six months and based on the record as it now stands, Petitioner has satisfied all prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
